Present the 7th Annual Virginia Beer Festival

...with more space, more breweries, and more vendors than ever...

At Norfolk's Town Point Park
Saturday, May 17, 2 to 6 pm

The Virginia Arts Festival presents its seventh celebration of the art of beer in an afternoon of unique beverages, music, and fun. For connoisseurs of the world's oldest alcoholic beverage, this festival offers a Brewnited Nations of the foamy finest from around the world; participating breweries hail from nine countries and 19 states, including seven of Virginia's finest beer makers. This year's new expanded layout in Town Point Park will allow guest to enjoy more breweries, shorter lines, and a greater variety of vendors.

Live music rounds out the festival: Virginia Beach band JackMove provides its beach-flavored ska-rock, and Norfolk's own Rylo brings its east coast dirty blues and rockabilly to the party.

Admission includes unlimited beer-tasting. Food is available for purchase. The music and fun are free.
